

ANSWERS FOR CHAPTER 12

Filtering, Searching & Sorting

1

If you use an array to store information (rather than an object), you can:

PLEASE CHECK BOX TO SELECT YOUR ANSWER

- a) Request information by its name
 - b) Store information in a specific order
 - c) Use the rows property to find out how many entries it contains
-

2

Which function would you use to reorder the content of an array?

- a) filter()
 - b) compare()
 - c) sort()
-

3

The `split()` method of the String object will create:

- a) An array of values
- b) Individual variables from an array
- c) Two values at the half way point of a string