

ANSWERS / TABLES

PLEASE TICK BOX TO SELECT YOUR ANSWER

1

Tables are made up of cells or boxes. How are they drawn out?

- a) One column at a time
- b) One row at a time
- c) Either of the above

2

Which element is used to create a heading for a table row or column?

- a) `<tr>`
- b) `<td>`
- c) `<th>`

3

What is the correct markup to make a table cell extend the width of two columns?

- a) `<td span="2">`
- b) `<td colspan="2">`
- c) `<td rowspan="2">`

4

Which of the following shows the correct syntax for a row containing three columns?

```
<tr>
  <td>Peach
  <td>Plum
  <td>Pear
</tr>
```

a)

```
<tr>
  <td>Peach</td>
  <td>Plum</td>
  <td>Pear</td>
</tr>
```

b)

```
<th>
  <td>Peach</td>
  <td>Plum</td>
  <td>Pear</td>
</th>
```

c)

5

On a long table, which element can you use to contain the heading rows?

- a) `<thead>`
- b) `<tbody>`
- c) `<tfoot>`

6

What is the correct way to indicate an empty table heading?

- a) `<th />`
- b) `<th></th>`
- c) Miss out the `<th>` element

7

What does the `scope` attribute specify?

- a) What the table is for
- b) How many columns a row should stretch across
- c) Whether the heading applies to a row or a column